

Fig. 21 shows an adaptive optics view of the mosaic of L (red), M (green) and S (blue) cones in four human subjects with normal color vision. The ratio of S to L and M cones is constant but that of L to M cones varies from 1:2.7 (M:L) to 16.5:1 (L:M). (adapted from Williams).